

Lipton Entertains Wounded Soldiers

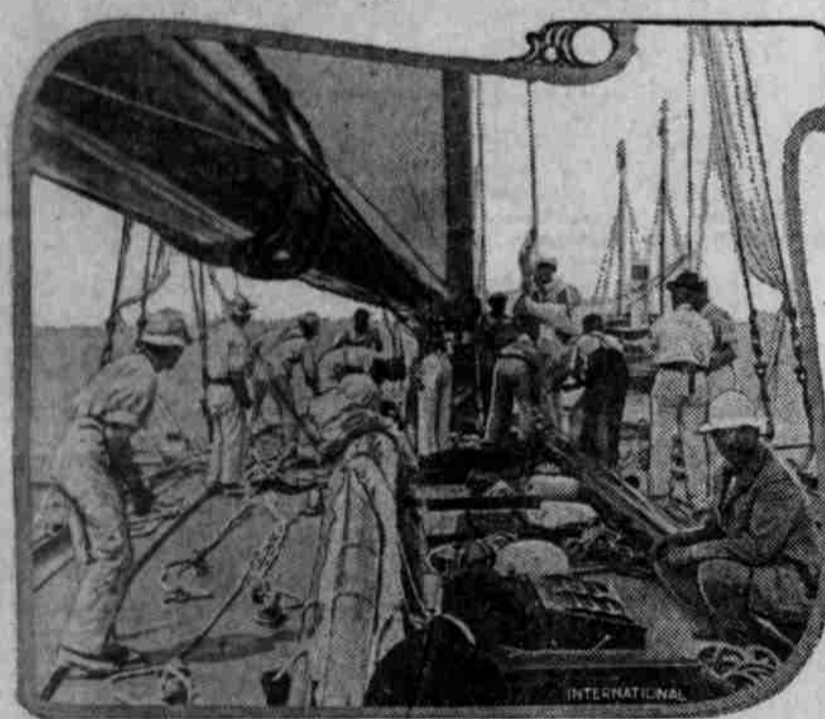

Scene on board Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht in New York harbor, when he entertained a group of ex-service men wounded in the great war. After festivities they all voted Sir Thomas "A Regular Good Fellow."

Great Host of Elks Invade Chicago

More than 200,000 were attracted to Chicago by the annual convention of the Brotherhood of Elks. It was the greatest affair of the kind in the history of the order. The entertainment features provided were elaborate and varied.

Tuning Up Lipton's Challenger

Holding the sails on the Shamrock IV before the start of one of the trial races off Sandy Hook, N. J.

Police Rifle Team in Action

One of the rifle squads of the police rifle team of the New York police department in action. These men spent several weeks in training at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y.

WORTH KNOWING

Color blindness is more common among educated than among uneducated people.

India has perhaps a greater variety of plants than any other country in the world, having 1,500 native species, or about 50 per cent more than is embraced in the flora of the whole of Europe.

The climatic mines of Almaden, Spain, where great quantities of vermillion are produced, have been worked for more than 300 years.

The first Korean woman to receive a medical degree in America was Dr. Esther Kim Park, who was graduated from the Woman's Medical college of Baltimore in 1900.

Of European invention is an automatic transmitter key for radio telegraphy by which a ship can call up a shore station equipped with a corresponding selective receiver relay even if to operator be on duty.

China is today buying copper from Japan to supply the coins which the Chinese sold to the Japanese in 1915, 1916 and 1917, which were melted and reformed by the Japanese during the high war prices for copper and zinc.

The new census figures, showing 5,521,151 people within the city of New York, make it about 1,000,000 larger in population than any other incorporated city in the world, as the 28 boroughs of London, under one city government, had in 1917 a population of only 4,517,172.

Statistics show that more persons commit suicide on Tuesday than on any other day of the week.

Asbestos is featherly as eiderdown and can be spun or woven. An ounce has been spun into a string more than 100 yards long.

Fifty men, all of them blinded in the war, engaged in a spirited boat race the other day over the famous Thames river course in England.

Danish authorities will teach geography and ethnology in the schools with motion pictures, adding other subjects if the experiment succeeds.

Iowa State college experiments have developed a house with an arrangement of doors and windows that makes it suitable for hogs at all seasons of the year.

Tandem axle construction on a new heavy motor truck allows the use of four small tires on the back of the machine instead of two large ones and lessens the weight to be lifted when a tire is to be changed.

A legislative effort to eliminate the distilling interests was made in this country during the Revolution, but the beginning of the prohibition movement took place in 1803. The movement did not become widespread until about seventy years ago.

Perhaps one of the most primitive of independent kingdoms is the little island of Johanna, in the Comoro group. The sultan boards any ship that may call there, and endeavors to obtain the washing for his wives, while the prime minister peddles coconuts and bananas.

STATE SIFTINGS

Albert Klebaum, 7, Canton, was instantly killed when run over by a truck.

Daniel Freed 27, was killed under a fall of rock in Little's coal mine, near Uhrichsville.

Joseph Dwy, 30, Bucyrus, fell off a tree while picking cherries and fractured his skull.

John Kallies, 3, Ottawa, was drowned when he fell off a bridge on which he was playing.

Marie Franklin, reporter of the Chillicothe Gazette, Chillicothe, was drowned while bathing.

Charles Miller, 27, was instantly killed at Warren when caught beneath a locomotive crane.

Burglars wrecked two strong boxes in the carpenters' union offices, Cleveland, and obtained $2,000.

More than 400 members of the Ohio national guard took part in the state rifle matches at Camp Perry.

Stepping beyond his depth in Big Darby creek, near Orient, Addison R. Miller, 26, Canton, was drowned.

Fred M. Martin, 34, Youngstown, manager of a roller coaster device, was killed when struck by a car.

Ohio State Bar association, at its annual convention at Cedar Point, rejected suggestions for a change in court procedure.

Mayors of 10 Ohio cities rode to Cleveland in airplanes to attend the outdoor aviation show of the Associated Aviation Clubs of Ohio.

Elyria city council passed a franchise ordinance giving the Logan Natural Gas company an increase in rates on a sliding scale up to 65 cents.

George Bockert, 11, Lancaster, gave his life beneath the wheels of an auto that his little red wagon might not be destroyed. Mrs. John Hamilton drove the auto.

Major Rudolph W. Schroeder and Howard Kinsch, both Dayton, plan to leave in September for France to compete in the international airplane race.

Mrs. James G. Fleming, 60, Lancaster, who was suffering from pneumonia, died as the result of shock experienced when her house was struck by lightning.

Ethel Gregg, 19, member of an auto aerial troupe, was badly hurt at Toledo when the auto in which she makes her leap overturned upon striking the ground.

Two hundred members of the Association of ex-Pupils of Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home attended the fortieth annual reunion of the association at Xenia.

Miss Gladys Seelye of Plain City and Mrs. Maud Scott of Powell were probably fatally injured when an auto in which they were riding struck a heavy truck in Columbus.

Benjamin M. King, 30, former service man, was instantly killed when he tilted back his chair to watch an airplane and fell from a second-story window at his home in Youngstown.

Paul Klingel, 16, was drowned in the Whetstone river at Claridon, near Marion, when picnicking with a Sunday school class. He waded into a deep hole and was unable to swim.

Guy Lantz of Mansfield, elected president of the Ohio division of the United National Association of Post-office Clerks at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention, at Newark.

J. W. Smith, 60, a retired clergyman, his wife and Gilbert Barker, 13, all of Toledo, were killed near Toledo when a truck in which they were riding was struck by a train at a railroad crossing.

Mayor M. R. Smith of Coshocton, candidate for re-election to the state central committee of the Republican party from the Nineteenth district, is unopposed after names of two other candidates were withdrawn.

In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, caught in the water, a candidate for the Maumee river, at Toledo, Scout Master J. Roy Pitkin was drowned. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Farmers of Ohio will need 5,000 cars during July and August, it was estimated by the state highway department last year and the year before. This is the estimate of W. F. Collander, chief of the state-federal road reporting service for Ohio.

Harry Clay Smith, colored editor of Cleveland, whose candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state was ruled out last week by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, brought a mandamus action in the supreme court to compel placing his name on the August primary ballot.

Thirteen religious denominations in the Ohio Federation of Churches will launch a co-operative program of church work in the state this summer, following discontinuance of interchurch world movement activities. In Ohio, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State, chairman of the committee, announced the project.

Christopher Schneck, 90, retired, former president of the Citizens' Bank company, Celina, died at his home in Celina.

Columbus streetcar men's union demands a flat increase in wages of 50 per cent for all employees belonging to the union, in a statement presented to Rail-Light company officials.

William Reed, 60, took shelter in a shed near Dayton during a storm. Lightning struck the shed, and Reed was found in an unconscious condition. The clothing and hat were ripped from his body and both feet were terribly lacerated. He may die.

Otto Christensen, 40, was killed and John Harms, 50, was seriously injured when an auto truck was hit by a train near Camp Perry.

Following enforcement of blue laws, citizens of Navarre circulated a petition asking Governor Cox to remove Mayor Samuel W. Bampton from office.

Three men and a woman are held at Youngstown, charged with the recent holdup of the Smoots Box company, in Cleveland, in which William Howe, an employee, was killed and $2,800 stolen. One of the suspects has confessed, according to police.

Nine striking employees of the New York Central railroad have filed suit at Youngstown for $125,000 against the railroad, alleging that the company secured their discharge from the Raymond Concrete Pipe company, with which they had taken jobs, by threatening to refuse switching facilities to the concrete company.

At Mansfield, Clayton O'Hare and Sherman Help are under arrest in connection with the investigation of the electrocution of John Renard, 7. The child was killed when he touched an automobile to which a live wire had been attached to catch a thief.

Four men were arrested at Alliance after an attempt to rob a safe in a theater.

Captain J. C. McAuley, 45, was drowned when he fell into Black river at Lorain.

Four persons were seriously hurt when a motorcycle and an auto collided at Akron.

Samuel G. Rogers, 64, attorney and former common pleas court judge, died at Cleveland.

Estate of Ohio C. Barber, late match manufacturer, Barborton, is appraised at $5,881.115.

H. A. Thompson, 84, ex-president of Otterbein university, died at Dayton, following a brief illness.

Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held its twentieth annual convention at Youngstown.

Seized with cramps while swimming, Paul Thorn, 19, was drowned in a quarry pool at Columbus.

Expense of the recent railway strike hearings at Youngstown will exceed $12,000. Arbitrators get $7,500.

Ohio State Bar association, in convention at Cedar Point, elected Daniel W. Idings, Dayton, president.

Samuel Kart, 40, died at a Bucyrus hospital as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Samuel V. Kentner, 7, Delaware, lost both legs when caught in a moving machine on his father's farm.

Water rates at Port Clinton have been raised 25 per cent. Domestic users will pay $10 a year instead of $5.

City line employees of the Northern Ohio Traction company at Akron went on strike to enforce demand for increased wages.

Henry Williams, eldest son of Professor R. P. Williams, was killed while driving at Harmon park, Lebanon, during a Fourth of July celebration.

John and Leroy Walker, 10 and 13, colored, were drowned when they waded beyond their depth in the Scioto river at Columbus. Neither could swim.

Arthur E. Morgan, chief engineer of the Miami conservancy district, announced his acceptance of the presidency of Antioch college, Yellow Springs.

In spite of the heroic efforts of his 82-year-old sister Robert Davis, Cleveland, 19, was dragged back into the lake by the powerful undertow and drowned.

David Griffith, living near Prospect, shot and killed his 17-year-old daughter, Eva. The only cause assigned is the belief that Griffith suddenly lost his mind.

Jack Dewitt of Washington C. H., who was hurt in an auto race at the Fort Miami track when his Ford racer crashed through a fence, died in a Toledo hospital.

John Jacoby, Cleveland, aviator, plunged to his death before thousands of picnickers when his new seaplane fell into the shallow water in Chippewa lake, Medina county.

A 2 1/2-inch nail swallowed three months ago by James Mowrey, aged 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mowrey of Attica, was removed from the duodenum by Bucyrus surgeons.

Norman Goss, 43, Warren carpenter, was killed as the result of an automobile accident. C. Stanton, who drove his car, was charged with manslaughter.

Dayton streetcar strike ended when carmen voted to return to work on the basis of 58, 60 and 62 cents an hour for three, six months and one year's service. The city commission granted a 7-cent fare, with tickets at eight for 50 cents.

Fourteen of Coshocton county's 15 railroad bridges are closed down by a strike of 600 miners, called in sympathy with the "day" men, who demand $1 a day flat increase over the $0.75 scale. Production for shipment has been cut to 10 cars a day.

Three persons were killed and three injured, one probably fatally, when a fast Erie passenger train crashed into an automobile at a crossing near Cleveland. The dead are: Mrs. Elizabeth Dusek, 40; Mrs. Amelia Pibich, 27; and Jerry Pibich, 3.

While searching for a pair of slippers in a smokehouse, Mrs. J. D. Martin, near Rushville, Fairfield county, was bitten three times on the right hand by a copperhead snake. Her life was saved by her husband, who sucked the blood from the wounds.

Bond issue of $140,000 was voted by the Alliance city council for enlargement of the city hospital.

Fairfield gets the army air service repair depot, according to announcement made by the war department. The depot was formerly at Indianapolis.

Angered because he thought 22-year-old Georgia Ooten, resident of the Y. W. C. A. at Dayton, met a younger man in Cincinnati, police say, W. C. Wyson, 64, attempted her life in an office where she is a stenographer by firing five bullets into her body. She is fatally wounded.

William Henry Venable, 84, widely known historian, poet, novelist and educator, died at Cincinnati after a long illness.

Joseph L. Bachman, attorney and Socialist leader, died at his home in Columbus. He had been slated for the Socialist nomination for governor this fall.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding was notified by Rev. Red Fox Skilushu, chief of the federated tribes of Indians, that both she and the senator had been adopted by the organizations and hereafter her Indian name would be "Snow Bird," meaning worker.

David Thompson, 8, Greenfield township, near Lancaster, was struck by a train and seriously injured while playing in a chicken house.

Cincinnati city council adopted a resolution in recognition of the great honor conferred on Ohio by the nomination of the two presidential candidates from this state.

Ohio's 1920 wheat crop will be from 70 to 25 per cent lower in yield than that of last year, due to the "fly blight" which has been playing havoc with the Buckeye fields, according to information obtained from the state board of agriculture.

Two hundred members of the Association of ex-Pupils of Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home attended the fortieth annual reunion of the association at Xenia.

Miss Gladys Seelye of Plain City and Mrs. Maud Scott of Powell were probably fatally injured when an auto in which they were riding struck a heavy truck in Columbus.

Benjamin M. King, 30, former service man, was instantly killed when he tilted back his chair to watch an airplane and fell from a second-story window at his home in Youngstown.

Paul Klingel, 16, was drowned in the Whetstone river at Claridon, near Marion, when picnicking with a Sunday school class. He waded into a deep hole and was unable to swim.

Guy Lantz of Mansfield, elected president of the Ohio division of the United National Association of Post-office Clerks at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention, at Newark.

J. W. Smith, 60, a retired clergyman, his wife and Gilbert Barker, 13, all of Toledo, were killed near Toledo when a truck in which they were riding was struck by a train at a railroad crossing.

Mayor M. R. Smith of Coshocton, candidate for re-election to the state central committee of the Republican party from the Nineteenth district, is unopposed after names of two other candidates were withdrawn.

In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, caught in the water, a candidate for the Maumee river, at Toledo, Scout Master J. Roy Pitkin was drowned. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Farmers of Ohio will need 5,000 cars during July and August, it was estimated by the state highway department last year and the year before. This is the estimate of W. F. Collander, chief of the state-federal road reporting service for Ohio.

Harry Clay Smith, colored editor of Cleveland, whose candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state was ruled out last week by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, brought a mandamus action in the supreme court to compel placing his name on the August primary ballot.

Thirteen religious denominations in the Ohio Federation of Churches will launch a co-operative program of church work in the state this summer, following discontinuance of interchurch world movement activities. In Ohio, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State, chairman of the committee, announced the project.

Christopher Schneck, 90, retired, former president of the Citizens' Bank company, Celina, died at his home in Celina.

Columbus streetcar men's union demands a flat increase in wages of 50 per cent for all employees belonging to the union, in a statement presented to Rail-Light company officials.

William Reed, 60, took shelter in a shed near Dayton during a storm. Lightning struck the shed, and Reed was found in an unconscious condition. The clothing and hat were ripped from his body and both feet were terribly lacerated. He may die.

Otto Christensen, 40, was killed and John Harms, 50, was seriously injured when an auto truck was hit by a train near Camp Perry.

Following enforcement of blue laws, citizens of Navarre circulated a petition asking Governor Cox to remove Mayor Samuel W. Bampton from office.

Three men and a woman are held at Youngstown, charged with the recent holdup of the Smoots Box company, in Cleveland, in which William Howe, an employee, was killed and $2,800 stolen. One of the suspects has confessed, according to police.

Nine striking employees of the New York Central railroad have filed suit at Youngstown for $125,000 against the railroad, alleging that the company secured their discharge from the Raymond Concrete Pipe company, with which they had taken jobs, by threatening to refuse switching facilities to the concrete company.

At Mansfield, Clayton O'Hare and Sherman Help are under arrest in connection with the investigation of the electrocution of John Renard, 7. The child was killed when he touched an automobile to which a live wire had been attached to catch a thief.

Four men were arrested at Alliance after an attempt to rob a safe in a theater.

Captain J. C. McAuley, 45, was drowned when he fell into Black river at Lorain.

Four persons were seriously hurt when a motorcycle and an auto collided at Akron.

Samuel G. Rogers, 64, attorney and former common pleas court judge, died at Cleveland.

Estate of Ohio C. Barber, late match manufacturer, Barborton, is appraised at $5,881.115.

H. A. Thompson, 84, ex-president of Otterbein university, died at Dayton, following a brief illness.

Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held its twentieth annual convention at Youngstown.

Seized with cramps while swimming, Paul Thorn, 19, was drowned in a quarry pool at Columbus.

Expense of the recent railway strike hearings at Youngstown will exceed $12,000. Arbitrators get $7,500.

Ohio State Bar association, in convention at Cedar Point, elected Daniel W. Idings, Dayton, president.

Samuel Kart, 40, died at a Bucyrus hospital as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Samuel V. Kentner, 7, Delaware, lost both legs when caught in a moving machine on his father's farm.

Water rates at Port Clinton have been raised 25 per cent. Domestic users will pay $10 a year instead of $5.

City line employees of the Northern Ohio Traction company at Akron went on strike to enforce demand for increased wages.

Henry Williams, eldest son of Professor R. P. Williams, was killed while driving at Harmon park, Lebanon, during a Fourth of July celebration.

John and Leroy Walker, 10 and 13, colored, were drowned when they waded beyond their depth in the Scioto river at Columbus. Neither could swim.

Arthur E. Morgan, chief engineer of the Miami conservancy district, announced his acceptance of the presidency of Antioch college, Yellow Springs.

In spite of the heroic efforts of his 82-year-old sister Robert Davis, Cleveland, 19, was dragged back into the lake by the powerful undertow and drowned.

David Griffith, living near Prospect, shot and killed his 17-year-old daughter, Eva. The only cause assigned is the belief that Griffith suddenly lost his mind.

Jack Dewitt of Washington C. H., who was hurt in an auto race at the Fort Miami track when his Ford racer crashed through a fence, died in a Toledo hospital.

John Jacoby, Cleveland, aviator, plunged to his death before thousands of picnickers when his new seaplane fell into the shallow water in Chippewa lake, Medina county.

A 2 1/2-inch nail swallowed three months ago by James Mowrey, aged 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mowrey of Attica, was removed from the duodenum by Bucyrus surgeons.

Norman Goss, 43, Warren carpenter, was killed as the result of an automobile accident. C. Stanton, who drove his car, was charged with manslaughter.

Dayton streetcar strike ended when carmen voted to return to work on the basis of 58, 60 and 62 cents an hour for three, six months and one year's service. The city commission granted a 7-cent fare, with tickets at eight for 50 cents.

Fourteen of Coshocton county's 15 railroad bridges are closed down by a strike of 600 miners, called in sympathy with the "day" men, who demand $1 a day flat increase over the $0.75 scale. Production for shipment has been cut to 10 cars a day.

Three persons were killed and three injured, one probably fatally, when a fast Erie passenger train crashed into an automobile at a crossing near Cleveland. The dead are: Mrs. Elizabeth Dusek, 40; Mrs. Amelia Pibich, 27; and Jerry Pibich, 3.

While searching for a pair of slippers in a smokehouse, Mrs. J. D. Martin, near Rushville, Fairfield county, was bitten three times on the right hand by a copperhead snake. Her life was saved by her husband, who sucked the blood from the wounds.

Bond issue of $140,000 was voted by the Alliance city council for enlargement of the city hospital.

Fairfield gets the army air service repair depot, according to announcement made by the war department. The depot was formerly at Indianapolis.

Angered because he thought 22-year-old Georgia Ooten, resident of the Y. W. C. A. at Dayton, met a younger man in Cincinnati, police say, W. C. Wyson, 64, attempted her life in an office where she is a stenographer by firing five bullets into her body. She is fatally wounded.

William Henry Venable, 84, widely known historian, poet, novelist and educator, died at Cincinnati after a long illness.

Joseph L. Bachman, attorney and Socialist leader, died at his home in Columbus. He had been slated for the Socialist nomination for governor this fall.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding was notified by Rev. Red Fox Skilushu, chief of the federated tribes of Indians, that both she and the senator had been adopted by the organizations and hereafter her Indian name would be "Snow Bird," meaning worker.

David Thompson, 8, Greenfield township, near Lancaster, was struck by a train and seriously injured while playing in a chicken house.

Cincinnati city council adopted a resolution in recognition of the great honor conferred on Ohio by the nomination of the two presidential candidates from this state.

Ohio's 1920 wheat crop will be from 70 to 25 per cent lower in yield than that of last year, due to the "fly blight" which has been playing havoc with the Buckeye fields, according to information obtained from the state board of agriculture.

Two hundred members of the Association of ex-Pupils of Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home attended the fortieth annual reunion of the association at Xenia.

Miss Gladys Seelye of Plain City and Mrs. Maud Scott of Powell were probably fatally injured when an auto in which they were riding struck a heavy truck in Columbus.

Benjamin M. King, 30, former service man, was instantly killed when he tilted back his chair to watch an airplane and fell from a second-story window at his home in Youngstown.

Paul Klingel, 16, was drowned in the Whetstone river at Claridon, near Marion, when picnicking with a Sunday school class. He waded into a deep hole and was unable to swim.

Guy Lantz of Mansfield, elected president of the Ohio division of the United National Association of Post-office Clerks at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention, at Newark.

J. W. Smith, 60, a retired clergyman, his wife and Gilbert Barker, 13, all of Toledo, were killed near Toledo when a truck in which they were riding was struck by a train at a railroad crossing.

Mayor M. R. Smith of Coshocton, candidate for re-election to the state central committee of the Republican party from the Nineteenth district, is unopposed after names of two other candidates were withdrawn.

In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, caught in the water, a candidate for the Maumee river, at Toledo, Scout Master J. Roy Pitkin was drowned. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Farmers of Ohio will need 5,000 cars during July and August, it was estimated by the state highway department last year and the year before. This is the estimate of W. F. Collander, chief of the state-federal road reporting service for Ohio.

Harry Clay Smith, colored editor of Cleveland, whose candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state was ruled out last week by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, brought a mandamus action in the supreme court to compel placing his name on the August primary ballot.

Thirteen religious denominations in the Ohio Federation of Churches will launch a co-operative program of church work in the state this summer, following discontinuance of interchurch world movement activities. In Ohio, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State, chairman of the committee, announced the project.

Christopher Schneck, 90, retired, former president of the Citizens' Bank company, Celina, died at his home in Celina.

Columbus streetcar men's union demands a flat increase in wages of 50 per cent for all employees belonging to the union, in a statement presented to Rail-Light company officials.

William Reed, 60, took shelter in a shed near Dayton during a storm. Lightning struck the shed, and Reed was found in an unconscious condition. The clothing and hat were ripped from his body and both feet were terribly lacerated. He may die.

Otto Christensen, 40, was killed and John Harms, 50, was seriously injured when an auto truck was hit by a train near Camp Perry.

Following enforcement of blue laws, citizens of Navarre circulated a petition asking Governor Cox to remove Mayor Samuel W. Bampton from office.

Three men and a woman are held at Youngstown, charged with the recent holdup of the Smoots Box company, in Cleveland, in which William Howe, an employee, was killed and $2,800 stolen. One of the suspects has confessed, according to police.

Nine striking employees of the New York Central railroad have filed suit at Youngstown for $125,000 against the railroad, alleging that the company secured their discharge from the Raymond Concrete Pipe company, with which they had taken jobs, by threatening to refuse switching facilities to the concrete company.

At Mansfield, Clayton O'Hare and Sherman Help are under arrest in connection with the investigation of the electrocution of John Renard, 7. The child was killed when he touched an automobile to which a live wire had been attached to catch a thief.

Four men were arrested at Alliance after an attempt to rob a safe in a theater.

Captain J. C. McAuley, 45, was drowned when he fell into Black river at Lorain.

Four persons were seriously hurt when a motorcycle and an auto collided at Akron.

Samuel G. Rogers, 64, attorney and former common pleas court judge, died at Cleveland.

Estate of Ohio C. Barber, late match manufacturer, Barborton, is appraised at $5,881.115.

H. A. Thompson, 84, ex-president of Otterbein university, died at Dayton, following a brief illness.

Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held its twentieth annual convention at Youngstown.

Seized with cramps while swimming, Paul Thorn, 19, was drowned in a quarry pool at Columbus.

Expense of the recent railway strike hearings at Youngstown will exceed $12,000. Arbitrators get $7,500.

Ohio State Bar association, in convention at Cedar Point, elected Daniel W. Idings, Dayton, president.

Samuel Kart, 40, died at a Bucyrus hospital as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Samuel V. Kentner, 7, Delaware, lost both legs when caught in a moving machine on his father's farm.

Water rates at Port Clinton have been raised 25 per cent. Domestic users will pay $10 a year instead of $5.

City line employees of the Northern Ohio Traction company at Akron went on strike to enforce demand for increased wages.

Henry Williams, eldest son of Professor R. P. Williams, was killed while driving at Harmon park, Lebanon, during a Fourth of July celebration.

John and Leroy Walker, 10 and 13, colored, were drowned when they waded beyond their depth in the Scioto river at Columbus. Neither could swim.

Arthur E. Morgan, chief engineer of the Miami conservancy district, announced his acceptance of the presidency of Antioch college, Yellow Springs.

In spite of the heroic efforts of his 82-year-old sister Robert Davis, Cleveland, 19, was dragged back into the lake by the powerful undertow and drowned.

David Griffith, living near Prospect, shot and killed his 17-year-old daughter, Eva. The only cause assigned is the belief that Griffith suddenly lost his mind.

Jack Dewitt of Washington C. H., who was hurt in an auto race at the Fort Miami track when his Ford racer crashed through a fence, died in a Toledo hospital.

John Jacoby, Cleveland, aviator, plunged to his death before thousands of picnickers when his new seaplane fell into the shallow water in Chippewa lake, Medina county.

A 2 1/2-inch nail swallowed three months ago by James Mowrey, aged 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mowrey of Attica, was removed from the duodenum by Bucyrus surgeons.

Norman Goss, 43, Warren carpenter, was killed as the result of an automobile accident. C. Stanton, who drove his car, was charged with manslaughter.

Dayton streetcar strike ended when carmen voted to return to work on the basis of 58, 60 and 62 cents an hour for three, six months and one year's service. The city commission granted a 7-cent fare, with tickets at eight for 50 cents.

Fourteen of Coshocton county's 15 railroad bridges are closed down by a strike of 600 miners, called in sympathy with the "day" men, who demand $1 a day flat increase over the $0.75 scale. Production for shipment has been cut to 10 cars a day.

Three persons were killed and three injured, one probably fatally, when a fast Erie passenger train crashed into an automobile at a crossing near Cleveland. The dead are: Mrs. Elizabeth Dusek, 40; Mrs. Amelia Pibich, 27; and Jerry Pibich, 3.

While searching for a pair of slippers in a smokehouse, Mrs. J. D. Martin, near Rushville, Fairfield county, was bitten three times on the right hand by a copperhead snake. Her life was saved by her husband, who sucked the blood from the wounds.

Bond issue of $140,000 was voted by the Alliance city council for enlargement of the city hospital.

Fairfield gets the army air service repair depot, according to announcement made by the war department. The depot was formerly at Indianapolis.

Angered because he thought 22-year-old Georgia Ooten, resident of the Y. W. C. A. at Dayton, met a younger man in Cincinnati, police say, W. C. Wyson, 64, attempted her life in an office where she is a stenographer by firing five bullets into her body. She is fatally wounded.

William Henry Venable, 84, widely known historian, poet, novelist and educator, died at Cincinnati after a long illness.

Joseph L. Bachman, attorney and Socialist leader, died at his home in Columbus. He had been slated for the Socialist nomination for governor this fall.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding was notified by Rev. Red Fox Skilushu, chief of the federated tribes of Indians, that both she and the senator had been adopted by the organizations and hereafter her Indian name would be "Snow Bird," meaning worker.

David Thompson, 8, Greenfield township, near Lancaster, was struck by a train and seriously injured while playing in a chicken house.

Cincinnati city council adopted a resolution in recognition of the great honor conferred on Ohio by the nomination of the two presidential candidates from this state.

Ohio's 1920 wheat crop will be from 70 to 25 per cent lower in yield than that of last year, due to the "fly blight" which has been playing havoc with the Buckeye fields, according to information obtained from the state board of agriculture.

Two hundred members of the Association of ex-Pupils of Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home attended the fortieth annual reunion of the association at Xenia.

Miss Gladys Seelye of Plain City and Mrs. Maud Scott of Powell were probably fatally injured when an auto in which they were riding struck a heavy truck in Columbus.

Benjamin M. King, 30, former service man, was instantly killed when he tilted back his chair to watch an airplane and fell from a second-story window at his home in Youngstown.

Paul Klingel, 16, was drowned in the Whetstone river at Claridon, near Marion, when picnicking with a Sunday school class. He waded into a deep hole and was unable to swim.

Guy Lantz of Mansfield, elected president of the Ohio division of the United National Association of Post-office Clerks at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention, at Newark.

J. W. Smith, 60, a retired clergyman, his wife and Gilbert Barker, 13, all of Toledo, were killed near Toledo when a truck in which they were riding was struck by a train at a railroad crossing.

Mayor M. R. Smith of Coshocton, candidate for re-election to the state central committee of the Republican party from the Nineteenth district, is unopposed after names of two other candidates were withdrawn.

In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, caught in the water, a candidate for the Maumee river, at Toledo, Scout Master J. Roy Pitkin was drowned. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Farmers of Ohio will need 5,000 cars during July and August, it was estimated by the state highway department last year and the year before. This is the estimate of W. F. Collander, chief of the state-federal road reporting service for Ohio.

Harry Clay Smith, colored editor of Cleveland, whose candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state was ruled out last week by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, brought a mandamus action in the supreme court to compel placing his name on the August primary ballot.

Thirteen religious denominations in the Ohio Federation of Churches will launch a co-operative program of church work in the state this summer, following discontinuance of interchurch world movement activities. In Ohio, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State, chairman of the committee, announced the project.

Christopher Schneck, 90, retired, former president of the Citizens' Bank company, Celina, died at his home in Celina.

Columbus streetcar men's union demands a flat increase in wages of 50 per cent for all employees belonging to the union, in a statement presented to Rail-Light company officials.

William Reed, 60, took shelter in a shed near Dayton during a storm. Lightning struck the shed, and Reed was found in an unconscious condition. The clothing and hat were ripped from his body and both feet were terribly lacerated. He may die.

Otto Christensen, 40, was killed and John Harms, 50, was seriously injured when an auto truck was hit by a train near Camp Perry.

Following enforcement of blue laws, citizens of Navarre circulated a petition asking Governor Cox to remove Mayor Samuel W. Bampton from office.

Three men and a woman are held at Youngstown, charged with the recent holdup of the Smoots Box company, in Cleveland, in which William Howe, an employee, was killed and $2,800 stolen. One of the suspects has confessed, according to police.

Nine striking employees of the New York Central railroad have filed suit at Youngstown for $125,000 against the railroad, alleging that the company secured their discharge from the Raymond Concrete Pipe company, with which they had taken jobs, by threatening to refuse switching facilities to the concrete company.

At Mansfield, Clayton O'Hare and Sherman Help are under arrest in connection with the investigation of the electrocution of John Renard, 7. The child was killed when he touched an automobile to which a live wire had been attached to catch a thief.

Four men were arrested at Alliance after an attempt to rob a safe in a theater.

Captain J. C. McAuley, 45, was drowned when he fell into Black river at Lorain.

Four persons were seriously hurt when a motorcycle and an auto collided at Akron.

Samuel G. Rogers, 64, attorney and former common pleas court judge, died at Cleveland.

Estate of Ohio C. Barber, late match manufacturer, Barborton, is appraised at $5,881.115.

H. A. Thompson, 84, ex-president of Otterbein university, died at Dayton, following a brief illness.

Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held its twentieth annual convention at Youngstown.

Seized with cramps while swimming, Paul Thorn, 19, was drowned in a quarry pool at Columbus.

Expense of the recent railway strike hearings at Youngstown will exceed $12,000. Arbitrators get $7,500.

Ohio State Bar association, in convention at Cedar Point, elected Daniel W. Idings, Dayton, president.

Samuel Kart, 40, died at a Bucyrus hospital as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Samuel V. Kentner, 7, Delaware, lost both legs when caught in a moving machine on his father's farm.

Water rates at Port Clinton have been raised 25 per cent. Domestic users will pay $10 a year instead of $5.

City line employees of the Northern Ohio Traction company at Akron went on strike to enforce demand for increased wages.

Henry Williams, eldest son of Professor R. P. Williams, was killed while driving at Harmon park, Lebanon, during a Fourth of July celebration.

John and Leroy Walker, 10 and 13, colored, were drowned when they waded beyond their depth in the Scioto river at Columbus. Neither could swim.

Arthur E. Morgan, chief engineer of the Miami conservancy district, announced his acceptance of the presidency of Antioch college, Yellow Springs.

In spite of the heroic efforts of his 82-year-old sister Robert Davis, Cleveland, 19, was dragged back into the lake by the powerful undertow and drowned.

David Griffith, living near Prospect, shot and killed his 17-year-old daughter, Eva. The only cause assigned is the belief that Griffith suddenly lost his mind.

Jack Dewitt of Washington C. H., who was hurt in an auto race at the Fort Miami track when his Ford racer crashed through a fence, died in a Toledo hospital.

John Jacoby, Cleveland, aviator, plunged to his death before thousands of picnickers when his new seaplane fell into the shallow water in Chippewa lake, Medina county.

A 2 1/2-inch nail swallowed three months ago by James Mowrey, aged 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mowrey of Attica, was removed from the duodenum by Bucyrus surgeons.

Norman Goss, 43, Warren carpenter, was killed as the result of an automobile accident. C. Stanton, who drove his car, was charged with manslaughter.

Dayton streetcar strike ended when carmen voted to return to work on the basis of 58, 60 and 62 cents an hour for three, six months and one year's service. The city commission granted a 7-cent fare, with tickets at eight for 50 cents.

Fourteen of Coshocton county's 15 railroad bridges are closed down by a strike of 600 miners, called in sympathy with the "day" men, who demand $1 a day flat increase over the $0.75 scale. Production for shipment has been cut to 10 cars a day.

Three persons were killed and three injured, one probably fatally, when a fast Erie passenger train crashed into an automobile at a crossing near Cleveland. The dead are: Mrs. Elizabeth Dusek, 40; Mrs. Amelia Pibich, 27; and Jerry Pibich, 3.

While searching for a pair of slippers in a smokehouse, Mrs. J. D. Martin, near Rushville, Fairfield county, was bitten three times on the right hand by a copperhead snake. Her life was saved by her husband, who sucked the blood from the wounds.

Bond issue of $140,000 was voted by the Alliance city council for enlargement of the city hospital.

Fairfield gets the army air service repair depot, according to announcement made by the war department. The depot was formerly at Indianapolis.

Angered because he thought 22-year-old Georgia Ooten, resident of the Y. W. C. A. at Dayton, met a younger man in Cincinnati, police say, W. C. Wyson, 64, attempted her life in an office where she is a stenographer by firing five bullets into her body. She is fatally wounded.

William Henry Venable, 84, widely known historian, poet, novelist and educator, died at Cincinnati after a long illness.

Joseph L. Bachman, attorney and Socialist leader, died at his home in Columbus. He had been slated for the Socialist nomination for governor this fall.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding was notified by Rev. Red Fox Skilushu, chief of the federated tribes of Indians, that both she and the senator had been adopted by the organizations and hereafter her Indian name would be "Snow Bird," meaning worker.

David Thompson, 8, Greenfield township, near Lancaster, was struck by a train and seriously injured while playing in a chicken house.

Cincinnati city council adopted a resolution in recognition of the great honor conferred on Ohio by the nomination of the two presidential candidates from this state.

Ohio's 1920 wheat crop will be from 70 to 25 per cent lower in yield than that of last year, due to the "fly blight" which has been playing havoc with the Buckeye fields, according to information obtained from the state board of agriculture.

Two hundred members of the Association of ex-Pupils of Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home attended the fortieth annual reunion of the association at Xenia.

Miss Gladys Seelye of Plain City and Mrs. Maud Scott of Powell were probably fatally injured when an auto in which they were riding struck a heavy truck in Columbus.

Benjamin M. King, 30, former service man, was instantly killed when he tilted back his chair to watch an airplane and fell from a second-story window at his home in Youngstown.

Paul Klingel, 16, was drowned in the Whetstone river at Claridon, near Marion, when picnicking with a Sunday school class. He waded into a deep hole and was unable to swim.

Guy Lantz of Mansfield, elected president of the Ohio division of the United National Association of Post-office Clerks at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention, at Newark.

J. W. Smith, 60, a retired clergyman, his wife and Gilbert Barker, 13, all of Toledo, were killed near Toledo when a truck in which they were riding was struck by a train at a railroad crossing.

Mayor M. R. Smith of Coshocton, candidate for re-election to the state central committee of the Republican party from the Nineteenth district, is unopposed after names of two other candidates were withdrawn.

In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, caught in the water, a candidate for the Maumee river, at Toledo, Scout Master J. Roy Pitkin was drowned. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Farmers of Ohio will need 5,000 cars during July and August, it was estimated by the state highway department last year and the year before. This is the estimate of W. F. Coll